Man Retreats

Rocky Mountain Mennonite Camp

A photograph of a snowy mountain landscape. In the foreground, a person wearing a bright orange jacket, blue jeans, and a grey hat stands on skis, looking towards another person. The second person is wearing a red jacket and black pants, also on skis, and is looking back towards the first person. The background is filled with dense evergreen trees heavily laden with snow. A large black speech bubble with a blue outline is positioned in the upper right quadrant, containing the text "Pretty sure it's this way" in white. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

Pretty sure
it's this way

I knew they we're gonna
get lost

I think we're lost

Yup, I killed it myself.

I just ate what?

I think I saw this tree earlier

Yeah, we're lost

Yup, really lost

I didn't feel like we were going in circles

Is that the same fox?

Wish my husband would go on the man retreat
